“Frickin' AMAZING!!!”

Audience Member - Dawson City, Yukon

“Thanks for the courage and chutzpah to perform this incredible piece of drama, or I think better to say, piece of life, yours and thousands like you. I found your sincerity, honesty, and willingness to express directly the emotional effects of childhood traumas to be deeply moving.”

Moyra Mulholland, Ph.D, Theatre, BSCCA (retired) - Gabriola Island, BC

“Dirty Laundry is thought provoking . . . stimulating . . . and spell-binding! Without a doubt, Marilyn is a passionate Truth Teller.”

Irene Martina, Author of "Dream Talk" - Edmonton, AB

“Marilyn Avient in Dirty Laundry captivates the audience as she tells the story of Judy, a woman who experiences trauma and, as a result, develops serious mental health problems. The play offers hope to individuals that suffer from mental health problems, as well as family and caregivers; and kindly allows professionals to see themselves in the mirror. It is well done, tasteful, and suitable for mature audiences.”

Marie Fast, Clinical Manager, Mental Health Services - Whitehorse, Yukon

“Congratulations! A very brave and creative offering.”

Colin Funk, Creativity Consultant - Banff, AB

“Insightful, intense, at times frightening and yet a beautiful story of humanness. Everyone who works in the mental health field with people suffering from mental illness should attend this play. Dirty Laundry should be included in the curriculum for psychiatric nurses as well as mental health workers.”

Irene Way, Psychiatric Nurse - Nanaimo, BC

“Thank-you for turning such sad, difficult fates into an exquisitely crafted theatrical and emotional experience. Your care with the theatrical form turned something unbearable into an experience audience members can be moved by. Please accept my sweet, deep thanks for your ability to shape pain and joy into something beautiful and of service to others.”

Mandi Kujawa - Banff AB

“What we loved about ‘Judy’s’ performance was her intent to get the audience to tap into each moving moment in its raw form. Through her authentic and engaging story we were able to connect with the profound impact mental illness has on individuals and families.”

Stew and Paulette Perram - Calgary AB

“GREAT! Dirty Laundry is a very unusual experience. A performance . . . but not a performance . . . because it is so real. So obviously real. Congratulations . . . and thank-you!”

Anonymous Note (left outside theatre) – Nanaimo BC
